- ✓ Differentiate instruction to best meet the needs of each child's learning style and goals.
- ✓ Promoting open communication with parents through report cards, progress reports, attendance letters, telephone calls and/or notes without using educational jargon.
- ✓ Conducting Parent Teacher Conferences each fall and spring. Conferences usually fall during November and March each year and being available for meetings, email, and phone calls at other times.

- ✓ Modeling respect by going to the teacher first about any concerns, trying to keep lines of communication open, and understanding that there are two sides to every issue.
- ✓ Showing interest in my child's education by attending parent teacher conferences, asking questions, and helping with homework.
- ✓ Stay aware of what goes on at school through reading newsletters, using the parent portal, and monitoring home activities which may interfere with progress in school.

Student Responsibilities

Strive to reach my full potential by:

- ✓ Arriving at school and attending class on time each day.
- ✓ Giving my best classroom effort by paying attention, participating in discussions, and completing all work.
- ✓ Respecting the rights and property of others and following all school rules.
